

Train driver talking to the children

Facts:

- ★ Children are killed every year because they've been trespassing on the railway.
- ★ Huge sums of money are spent every year to repair the damage caused by throwing stones on the track.

The children were caught playing around on the railway and throwing stones onto the track.

Continue the conversation between the train driver and the children. They are all keen to explain their point of view.

Train driver: I know what'll happen – if you slip you'll be carried away in a body bag.

Children: We won't slip. We're not stupid.
